

MATTHEW J. BUCCI

(b) (6)

AECOM

Vice President, Strategic Growth

Americas

February 2017 – Present

- Develop and coordinate enterprise geopolitical strategy across Americas, overseeing state advocacy efforts to help advance AECOM's business interests and facilitate growth. Work across business lines and regions on long-term key priorities.
- Manage nationwide external advocacy consultants. Assist with repositioning for enterprise-wide initiatives focused on large-scale infrastructure projects. Develop and maintain relationships with key stakeholders and work with senior leadership on enhancing overall market positioning.

Senior Strategy Director, National Business Line, February 2017-April 2020

- Planned, managed, and executed projects related to market strategy for AECOM's disaster recovery business, including serving on pursuit teams for business development opportunities, managing overall business line budget and growth investments, leading annual strategic planning process, and crafting presentations for executive leadership and board of directors.

Office of Governor Gina M. Raimondo

Senior Advisor & Director of the Governor's Office

Providence, RI

January 2015 – February 2017

- Served as a senior strategic advisor to the Governor, managing public engagement, executive operations, and federal government relations for the State of Rhode Island.
- Developed and led engagement strategies on complex policy matters to advance the Governor's priorities, including landmark economic development legislation as well as efforts in transportation, defense, and regulatory matters.
- Directed and established procedures and to promote communication and control flow of information to the Governor. Oversaw the Governor's scheduling team, advance and security details, and executive personnel.

United States Senator Jack Reed

Campaign Manager | Senior Campaign Advisor

Washington, DC | Providence, RI

March 2013 – December 2014

- Managed Senator Reed's re-election campaign, which earned the highest margin of any Democratic Senator in the country: managed operations, digital communications, oversaw political and community outreach, and national and Rhode Island finance teams.
- Advised on strategic positioning and managed external relationships with stakeholders and donors, as well as key interest groups and constituencies.
- Served as primary campaign spokesman and managed national consulting teams, including advertising and research.
- Negotiated and executed client and vendor contracts for outside consultants. Managed solicitation process as well as developing work plans, objectives, and deliverables.

Kully Hall, LLC

Director

Los Angeles, CA | Washington, DC

July 2012 – May 2014

- Created and executed successful media advertising campaigns for television, Internet, and digital marketing for national and local political, advocacy and initiative, and corporate clients, including drafting and editing scripts, and producing creative frameworks.
- Developed business strategies, managed client accounts, and presented Kully Hall's services to potential clients.
- Produced campaign messaging and branding; advised on communications outreach and navigating political landscape.

Howard Berman for Congress

Campaign Manager

Los Angeles, CA
July 2012 – November 2012

- Oversaw multi-million dollar budget and managed 16 full-time employees; provided daily guidance to candidate.
- Oversaw day-to-day operations, including political, press, grassroots, and fundraising; managed the campaign's external polling and research consulting teams.

Barbara Boxer for United States Senate

Deputy National Finance Director

Los Angeles, CA
June 2010 – November 2010

- Directed Washington, DC fundraising operations and served as the Washington, DC Political Action Committee Director.
- Managed staff of seven as the finance department supervisor; helped lead the team that raised $30 million.
- Developed and administered a $3 million finance department budget, including hiring new employees, engaging in salary negotiations, and tracking the spending and expenses of outside consultants.

Office of United States Senator Jack Reed

Special Assistant, December 2008 – June 2012

Washington, DC | Providence, RI
January 2007 - June 2012

- Advised Senator and Chief of Staff on political and domestic policy matters, local economic development issues, and worked with non-profits and corporations, as well as their representatives, seeking Congressionally-directed spending and competitive federal grants.

Campaign Manager, May 2008-November 2008

- Served as senior political staff during Senator's successful re-election campaign. Managed day-to-day campaign operations, including overall statewide political, finance, and communication strategies.

Legislative Correspondent and Staff Assistant, January 2007 – May 2008

- Drafted letters, statements, and remarks on defense, foreign policy, national security, and veterans' affairs issues, and managed defense appropriations database, and tracked all defense-based project requests.

Lieutenant Governor Charles J. Fogarty

Deputy Finance Director

Providence, RI
May 2005 – November 2006

- Managed political action fundraising strategy, organized and executed fundraising events, and oversaw candidate call time.

Education

Quinnipiac University

B.A. Political Science; Minor: Economics, Magna cum laude

Hamden, CT
May 2005