

Dalia T. Batuuka

(b)(6)

Education:

The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA

May 2019

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science

GPA: (b)(6)

Bachelor of Arts in African Studies

Minor in Women, Gender, & Sexuality Studies

Professional Experience:

Political Coordinator, Theresa Greenfield for Iowa

August 2020-December 2020

- Responsible for maintaining strong relationships between U.S. Senatorial candidate and special interest groups
- Managed special projects including a volunteer mailer program that achieved over 75,000 pieces of campaign political literature to be circulated throughout Iowa
- Organized over 10 bipartisan virtual campaign events focused on infrastructure, healthcare, and business development

Advance Traveler, Biden for President

Spring 2020

- Executed impromptu campaign stops for Vice President Joe Biden
- Conducted crowd logistics and venue research for campaign events
- Supported logistics for campaign traveling staff

Internship, Congressional Black Caucus Foundation- Washington, D.C.

Summer 2019

- Provided legislative and administrative support for the Office of Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee
- Issued policy memos to senior staff centered on reproductive healthcare, appropriations, and foreign affairs, including being the lead person on briefing the Congresswoman on the Sudanese Political Crisis of 2019 given my unique background of being the only staffer to hold a degree in African Affairs
- Office management skills including answering calls, confirming appointments, greeting guests

Internship, Alliance for American Manufacturing- Washington, D.C.

Summer 2018

- Produced research on U.S. foreign trade interests in Sub Saharan African countries (Ghana, Ivory Coast, Ethiopia, Kenya, Rwanda), detailing trade priorities for the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative
- Provided in-depth reports on the growing impact of Chinese State Owned Entities' (SOEs) investments on the African continent
- Published original profile articles on American companies that manufacture products domestically

Internship, Mayor's Office of Trade and International Affairs-Houston, Texas

Summer 2017

- Planned several events that hosted foreign ministers who visited Houston, Texas.
- Piloted research on Refugee resettlement in Houston
- Contributed to Mayor's Speech Writing team in preparation for the City of Houston's Africa Day 2017 Keynote Address

Delegate, International Model African Union Conference-Washington, D.C.

Spring 2016-2019

- Organized a committee of delegates to draft mock resolutions based on the official rules and procedures of the African Union
- Sponsored mock resolutions concerning Refugee issues such as access to healthcare and evacuation efforts in Eastern Africa

- Negotiated mock resolutions on Social Policies that affect African women including but not limited to educational equity, gendered violence, reproductive health, and HIV/AIDS prevention
- Awarded Best Delegation in my second year for excellence in diplomatic strategy from the Peace & Security Committee