Washington, D.C. 20005-3917

Dear Mr. Rounds:

The purpose of this letter is to forward the attached supplement to Under Secretary Jed Kolko's Ethics Agreement and the attached amendment to his Public Financial Disclosure Reports (278e) dated July 26, 2021 and March 15, 2022. Under Secretary Kolko explains in his letter, dated August 25, 2022, the reasons for the supplement and amendment is to address two former board positions (with The National Association for Business Economics and the California Budget and Policy Center) which were initially believed to be voluntary and therefore nonreportable, but which Commerce ethics officials later determined were fiduciary in nature and should have been reported.

As the Alternate Designed Agency Ethics Official of the U.S. Department of Commerce, I have reviewed the updated information contained in the enclosed. Under Secretary Kolko has also confirmed that he has not participated in matters related to these entities. Therefore, I believe that Under Secretary Kolko continues to be in compliance with applicable laws and regulations governing conflicts of interest.

Sincerely,

Re: Supplement to Financial Disclosure Report of Jed Kolko

Dear Ms. Dornburg:

The purpose of this document is to supplement my financial disclosure reports signed on July 26, 2021, and March 15, 2022, by adding two unpaid outside positions. These corrections are noted below.

Correction to Part 1 – Filer’s Positions Held Outside the United States Government

Organization Name	City/State	Organization Type	Position Held	From	To
National Association for Business Economics	Washington, D.C.	Professional Association	Member, Board of Directors	2019	2/2022
California Budget and Policy Center	Sacramento, CA	Non-profit, Public Policy	Member, Board of Directors	2015	12/2021

I understand that this supplement will be attached to my financial disclosure reports and released upon request with those reports.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rounds:

The purpose of this letter is to forward the attached amendment to Mr. Jed Kolko's Public Financial Disclosure Report (278e) dated July 26, 2021. Mr. Kolko explains in his letter dated March 17, 2022, the reasons for the amendment are as follows: Mr. Kolko inadvertently omitted from Part 5, line 2, the unvested shares held in his spouse's BlackRock Equity Plan.

As the Alternate Designed Agency Ethics official of the U.S. Department of Commerce, I have reviewed the updated information contained in the amendment and based upon my review of Mr. Kolko's previous Ethics Agreement commitments, I continue to believe that Mr. Kolko is in compliance with applicable laws and regulations governing conflicts of interest.

Re: Amendment to Financial Disclosure Report of Jed Kolko

Dear Ms. Williams:

The purpose of this letter is to correct an inadvertent error in the financial disclosure report that I signed on July 26, 2021. In my initial disclosure, I inadvertently omitted the unvested shares held in the BlackRock Equity Plan, my spouse's employee stock ownership plan. The entry below reflects the holding of BlackRock restricted stock.

The item identified below is amended, as follows:

Part 5

#	Description	EIF	Value	Income Type	Income Amount
2.3	BlackRock, unvested restricted stock	N/A	$500,000- $1,000,000		None (or less than $201)

I understand that this amendment will be attached to my financial disclosure report and released upon request with that report.

Sincerely,

Jed Kolko

Summary of Contents

1. Filer's Positions Held Outside United States Government

Part 1 discloses positions that the filer held at any time during the reporting period (excluding positions with the United States Government). Positions are reportable even if the filer did not receive compensation.

This section does not include the following: (1) positions with religious, social, fraternal, or political organizations; (2) positions solely of an honorary nature; (3) positions held as part of the filer's official duties with the United States Government; (4) mere membership in an organization; and (5) passive investment interests as a limited partner or non-managing member of a limited liability company.

2. Filer's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

Part 2 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned and other non-investment income of the filer totaling more than $200 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, fees, partnership share, honoraria, scholarships, and prizes)
- Assets related to the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

3. Filer's Employment Agreements and Arrangements

Part 3 discloses agreements or arrangements that the filer had during the reporting period with an employer or former employer (except the United States Government), such as the following:

- Future employment
- Leave of absence
- Continuing payments from an employer, including severance and payments not yet received for previous work (excluding ordinary salary from a current employer)
- Continuing participation in an employee welfare, retirement, or other benefit plan, such as pensions or a deferred compensation plan
- Retention or disposition of employer-awarded equity, sharing in profits or carried interests (e.g., vested and unvested stock options, restricted stock, future share of a company's profits, etc.)

4. Filer's Sources of Compensation Exceeding $5,000 in a Year

Part 4 discloses sources (except the United States Government) that paid more than $5,000 in a calendar year for the filer's services during any year of the reporting period.

The filer discloses payments both from employers and from any clients to whom the filer personally provided services. The filer discloses a source even if the source made its payment to the filer's employer and not to the filer. The filer does not disclose a client's payment to the filer's employer if the filer did not provide the services for which the client is paying.

5. Spouse's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

Part 5 discloses the following:

- Sources of earned income (excluding honoraria) for the filer's spouse totaling more than $1,000 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, consulting fees, and partnership share)
- Sources of honoraria for the filer's spouse greater than $200 during the reporting period
- Assets related to the filer's spouse's employment, business activities, other income-generating activities (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in income was received during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents)

This section does not include assets or income from United States Government employment or assets that were acquired separately from the filer's spouse's business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account). Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF). Amounts of income are not required for a spouse's earned income (excluding honoraria).

6. Other Assets and Income

Part 6 discloses each asset, not already reported, (1) that ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) from which more than $200 in investment income was received during the reporting period. For purposes of the value and income thresholds, the filer aggregates the filer's interests with those of the filer's spouse and dependent children.

This section does not include the following types of assets: (1) a personal residence (unless it was rented out during the reporting period); (2) income or retirement benefits associated with United States Government employment (e.g., Thrift Savings Plan); and (3) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, money market accounts) at a single financial institution with a value of $5,000 or less (unless more than $200 in income was received). Additional exceptions apply. Note: The type of income is not required if the amount of income is $0 - $200 or if the asset qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF).

7. Transactions

Part 7 discloses purchases, sales, or exchanges of real property or securities in excess of $1,000 made on behalf of the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child during the reporting period.

This section does not include transactions that concern the following: (1) a personal residence, unless rented out; (2) cash accounts (e.g., checking, savings, CDs, money market accounts) and money market mutual funds; (3) Treasury bills, bonds, and notes; and (4) holdings within a federal Thrift Savings Plan account. Additional exceptions apply.

8. Liabilities

Part 8 discloses liabilities over $10,000 that the filer, the filer's spouse or dependent child owed at any time during the reporting period.

This section does not include the following types of liabilities: (1) mortgages on a personal residence, unless rented out (limitations apply for PAS filers); (2) loans secured by a personal motor vehicle, household furniture, or appliances, unless the loan exceeds the item's purchase price; and (3) revolving charge accounts, such as credit card balances, if the outstanding liability did not exceed $10,000 at the end of the reporting period. Additional exceptions apply.

9. Gifts and Travel Reimbursements

This section discloses:

- Gifts totaling more than $415 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.
- Travel reimbursements totaling more than $415 that the filer, the filer's spouse, and dependent children received from any one source during the reporting period.

For purposes of this section, the filer need not aggregate any gift or travel reimbursement with a value of $166 or less. Regardless of the value, this section does not include the following items: (1) anything received from relatives; (2) anything received from the United States Government or from the District of Columbia, state, or local governments; (3) bequests and other forms of inheritance; (4) gifts and travel reimbursements given to the filer's agency in connection with the filer's official travel; (5) gifts of hospitality (food, lodging, entertainment) at the donor's residence or personal premises; and (6) anything received by the filer's spouse or dependent children totally independent of their relationship to the filer. Additional exceptions apply.

Privacy Act Statement

Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended (the Act), 5 U.S.C. app. § 101 et seq., as amended by the Stop Trading on Congressional Knowledge Act of 2012 (Pub.
